A Greenback Case!

HAVING BEEN COMPELLED TO ACCEPT OF Legal Tender Notes at par since the 17th day of December, 1862, for the rent of my handsome Brick Store, corner of Morrison and Front streets, I feel compelled to say something for the benefit of the public at large, that

Jacob Mayer

Leased the building of me on the 17th day of February, 1862, for a term of years, at which time there was no such currency in vogue, and it was understood the terms were CASH. Since the date above stated I have received the depreciated currency regularly, in liberal payment for the rent of the

CITY OF PARIS STORE,

Making less than two-fifths of the real amount—and Mayer was to pay. He has secured the building at very advantageous rates, and even were he now to comply with the contract, and pay in COIN, would be getting the best bargain in the city. I make this statement to show the public what kind of a man he is, and he will take such undue advantage of the times to convey [illegible] dollars to himself by LEGAL SWINDLING. The public can readily see what it costs to have such tenants. G. W. VAUGHN.

No. 146 Front Street, Portland.

HAVING ESTABLISHED THE ABOVE MANUFACtory in Portland, we are now prepared to fill any orders for COFFEE and SPICES, and will prove by a trial that they cannot be excelled in any market. We will offer terms to the trade that will warrant them to patronize a Home Manufactory in preference to sending below for goods in our line, and shall endeavor to prove by our exertions that Oregon need not depend on other sections of the Pacific Coast for anything we manufacture.

Coffee Fresh Ground Every Day.

THURSDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 1, 1864

A COMING PEACE.—We believe that peace awaits us at no distant day. [illegible] another year in [illegible] the Confederacy and leave [illegible] its armies in the field [illegible] to the Federal forces. Already we see [illegible] and hear the voice of Davis [illegible] urging the deserters, who number more than the men in the field, to return to their posts and repel [illegible]. The heart of the Southern people is not in the cause as it was one year since, and their courage lessens with the lessening array of their numerically [illegible] forces, while as a natural result the American people rally round the flag more numerously and heartily now that victory cheers them, and the prestige of success lights their way. Some day the rebellion will collapse, the public heart will sink before the [illegible] of past losses and present death and desolation, and the ruler will no longer be able to play the despot at will. When the Southern people speak independently for themselves we shall have peace, and despite the losses endured, and all the horrors civil war has entailed, the hearts of now contending millions will hail its first dawn with rapture and delight.

ABOUT GLASS HOUSES.—There is a Copperhead paper at Salem that throws mud at its betters so frequently that it is a most fitting exponent of the party that contains within itself all the ruffianism of the United States.

And the character, antecedents and family history of its ostensible editor are fully in consonance with that part of the Democratic party he so successfully represents. We have many personal friends who deserve our regard, although they differ from us in principle and questions of public policy. We have always been under the impression that these gentlemen deserved a better fate than to be associated with so many traitors and roughs, or than to be represented by editors so flagrantly deficient in all the moral and social qualifications that they possess themselves, as they so frequently are.

There is a proverb that "those who live in glass houses should never throw stones," and we are so strongly reminded of this old and axiomatic saying by the course of the Arena that, from no more spirit of revenge or personal retaliation, but as a custodian of the fair fame of our State—to a certain degree—and a faithful historian, that must ignore gentlemanly instincts when the public welfare demands that the truth be plainly told, we ought to give something of the private history of the young man whose name appears as editor of the Arena—facts, in part, derived from the lips of his own grandfather, several years ago.

THE COLLECTION OF TAXES.—Since the Democratic press denounce the act passed by the late Assembly, to make Sheriffs collectors of taxes, as very unjust and an abolition measure, we are very happy to state that we were to-day favored with a call from Mr. Cox, of Josephine, a Democrat and member of the late Legislature, who remarked in this connection: "It was a good bill and we all voted for it." We now ask the public what confidence they can place in journals that lie so wilfully and insult their good sense so grossly by attempting to deceive them on public measures? We invite them to discuss fairly the great questions of the day, and we have sophistry and falsehoods dished up for us in reply.

POST OFFICE DISCONTINUED.—We are informed by B. M. Watts, Esq., Post Master at St. Helens, that the Post Master General has discontinued the post office at Lake River, Clark county, W. T., on account of the resignation and recommendation of the Post Master at that office. Persons having mail matter for said office are notified that the same will be distributed at St. Helens by order of the Post Master General.

"A soldier's widow, Ann Burke by name, died of starvation in Jersey City this week. Her husband was killed fighting to make niggers his equal."

The above beautiful extract is from the Washington Democrat. We think a "nigger" is already the equal of any Copperhead editor who could be so low as to write that sentence. A valiant traitor is much more worthy of our respect.

"MR. LINCOLN draws his salary in gold. The laborer and mechanic receive their wages in depreciated paper. The Executive who has driven gold out of sight demands his pay in it, and compels the poor man to receive his hire in greenbacks, which he himself refuses to touch."—Washington Democrat.

That is false, and the editor knew it was a lie when he had the impudence to publish it.

THE famous Stonewall Brigade, recruited in the Shenandoah Valley, originally 5,000 strong, and reinforced at various times by 8,000 recruits from the valley, had been reduced to 1,000 men. It was totally annihilated in Sheridan's fight, every officer being captured, and the whole brigade either killed or captured.

MONEY INVESTED.—We have been told that the enterprizing citizens of the Dalles have raised a large fund to secure the building of the Mint there before the dust hides that thriving place from view. Judging from appearances quite an amount of the money has been invested in the Walla Walla Statesman.

THE IDAHO LEGISLATURE.—The two Houses are in session, fully organized, and doing considerable work. We hope to receive interesting correspondence from Lewiston during the session. We saw no important business accomplished in the reports of the Lewiston [illegible] of last date received.

VICTORIA ITEMS.—Some writer in the Chronicle complains of the [illegible] of the ship Warden and her use [illegible] by the American army officers on San Juan Island, and also of the arrest and confinement of [illegible], long resident of that island.

Four Hebrews have been elected to the Legislature of the State of Nevada. Their names are Rev. H. M. Bien, Max Walter, Henry Epstein and W. A. Rosenbath.

THE Richmond Enquirer, speaking of the defeat of Early, says: "Lives are precious with us, and a few thousand tell heavily in the scales."

AN Indian was killed by a negro in Seattle, W. T., on the 23d ult. What was the cause

[illegible]

A gentleman who knew [illegible] well [illegible] in an address delivered [illegible] about two years ago, as follows:

With tears [illegible] of the [illegible] saw and felt [illegible] possible youth [illegible] gentleness and manliness [illegible] deliberately resolved [illegible] farewell to [illegible] father, mother, sister [illegible] Pumpsick, [illegible] among [illegible] Nineteenth Regiment of Massachusetts [illegible]. As his regiment [illegible] on its way to the front [illegible] marching by his side [illegible] his canteen with water [illegible] else [illegible] bade him adieu, feeling that [illegible] virtue equal to any I have read [illegible] in Plutarch to the present time.

BOYCE'S LETTER.—William [illegible] of South Carolina, lately addressed Davis in the clear and ringing accents of courageous [illegible] He described his Government as the most unmitigated despotism in ancient or modern times. He adds:

Is not our Federal Government in the exercise of every possible power [illegible] military despotism [illegible] there were no States, only provinces [illegible] power [illegible] conferred upon you [illegible]—what greater power would you exercise than you do now? Have you not carried conscription to its last limits? Is it not every man in the country between seventeen and fifty subject to military [illegible]? None are exempt except upon considerations of public interest. [illegible] lay direct taxes in the very teeth of the Constitution? Have we not issued such vast amounts of paper money as to [illegible] all values? Have we not [illegible] the holders of [illegible] money to fund it or lose one third? Have we not seized all the railroads? Have we not [illegible] railroads and built others? Have we not established a universal system of impressment of property, at our own prices, in our own money? Have we not established a Government monopoly of the exportation of the great staples of the country? Have we not compelled those whom we permit to remain at home to execute bonds to furnish their products to us at our price? Have we not suspended the writ of habeas corpus? Have we not introduced the passport system, which we used to think belonged to the iron despotism of Europe? In short, has not the Federal Government done everything that a centralized despotism could do?

GOING TO SEE IT THROUGH.—The Bulletin says that a large number, said to be nearly three hundred, of the discharged soldiers of the California Volunteers left on the steamer Moses Taylor for the East, where they will re-enlist and see the grand work for which they have enlisted three years put through. When they first enlisted, they did so with the expectation of being ordered East, but were disappointed. Now they have sold their bounties at a discount, and have taken the proceeds to procure a passage to the front. They are not to be cheated out of a fight if they can help it.

IN Algeria some trouble was caused in the French army by compelling Protestants and Jews to follow in religious processions. One of the Jews who refused and was tried by court-martial obtained a new trial and was acquitted because the service does not require such a duty.

T. E. BOSPFORD, formerly law partner of the rebel Judah P. Benjamin, died recently while acting on the staff of a rebel General. He was a proprietor of the New Orleans Delta, now the Era, and a prominent member of the Louisiana Convention of 1861.

IMMENSE FIRE IN ENGLAND.—A fire almost unparalleled in extent in the history of this land recently broke out in Woolmer Forest, and raged with fearful vehemence for more than a week. The united effort of seventeen thousand persons were required to subdue it. The flames were distinctly visible for a circuit of twenty miles. Huts and cottages were consumed, and a village narrowly escaped the conflagration.

A CORRESPONDENT of the Richmond Enquirer, in a description of the present condition of Charleston, says:

In one of the widest and handsomest thoroughfares [illegible] wheels is all that can be seen [illegible]. All else [illegible] tall grass and weeds [illegible] you of a pathway through [illegible] in the country.

A JEALOUS husband in St. Louis recently spied around his house and rifled as he supposed upon his wife and a stranger man in his garden. Just as he was about to [illegible] the stranger with a big knife, the lady revealed herself as his cook, and the young man was found to be her lover. He was spared.

A CRYSTAL PALACE has been opened at Amsterdam with great solemnity and in the presence of inhabitants from all parts of Holland. It is built on the model of Sir Joseph Paxton's London structure of 1851.

THERE are 24 British Missionary Societies. They have 2,916 agents, 201,000 [illegible]. The grand total of Protestant missionaries [illegible] 9,000 agents, [illegible] members, [illegible] pupils, and a combined income of $4,[illegible].

FORTY thousand slaves were employed to build the defenses of Atlanta. [illegible] that show how useful [illegible] the rebels in the war. Let the slaves [illegible] for slavery in vain.

JOSH BILLINGS says [illegible] If a man [illegible] wrong he [illegible]

MINNESOTA raises 2,500,000 bushels of wheat more this year than it ever did [illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible] patent reapers [illegible] washed [illegible] wooden hands [illegible] are milked by the patent [illegible] milker [illegible] the nearest little steel kitchen [illegible] who has no followers [illegible] and even his chairs, his tables and his [illegible] work in general, come from manufactories as large as our cotton mills, where they are turned out in parts by swift moving machinery.—[illegible] All ertser

HOMICIDE IN TULARE.—The Visalia Delta gives the following details of the killing of Rad Ellis in Linn's Valley:

On the morning of November 9th the lawyer [illegible] the deceased left home with the avowed intention of killing John McFarlane [illegible] and also a man named Dunbar [illegible] with no effect. At the time the meeting took place McFarlane was at the residence of [illegible] Hope, and saw Ellis approaching and arose and said to [illegible] "There comes Rad Ellis to kill me," and as he approached Hope [illegible] to the entrance and said—"Rad, go away, we don't want any trouble here." With that he drew his pistol, when McFarlane came forward and told his friend to stand back [illegible] going to stand there, and he fired at [illegible] when Hope withdrew and both fired at the same moment, Ellis' ball passing in the exact range where Hope had stood. The ball of the first discharged [illegible] in the chest of the deceased [illegible] the vicinity of the first and Ellis said, "Well John, you've killed me," and fell. The difficulty grew out of the fact that McFarlane refused to carry the Greenhorn Mountain road past his place—hence the killing. Ellis, before leaving home, said to his family, "If I kill McFarlane bury me in the burying ground (naming it); if I don't kill him, bury me where you please."

PROPER RESENTMENT.—The Grass Valley Union says:

A few days ago a certain Copperhead called at a house on Auburn street and inquired if the owner of the house was in. He was answered by the ladies who were present and informed that he was absent. Observing a small lad playing on the floor, he said, "Hurrah for Jeff Davis!" The boy answered by shouting lustily for Old Abe, upon which Cop. addressed the boy with an insulting remark. The words had barely escaped his lips when he found himself beset with broomsticks and cudgels in his front and rear, and in the twinkling of an eye his sublime carcass was seen [illegible] on the floor. He had been a leading [illegible] in the Democratic ranks [illegible] his head and ribs led him to think these ladies [illegible] He preferred a sound [illegible] a procession to this physical [illegible] upon his own body, scrambling [illegible] marched him to the gate [illegible] the broomstick [illegible] slanderer was [illegible]

AN ECCENTRIC MILLIONAIRE.—A few days ago an old woman died in the small town of [illegible], on the banks of the Scheldt. The old lady was regarded by her neighbors as being only a few removes from positive poverty, but she died as she had always lived [illegible] her lifetime she left no will [illegible] to the astonishment of her neighbors what she had left behind her was cash, banknotes and stock amounting in value to [illegible] There were pots full [illegible] a box full of [illegible] and other stock [illegible] a quarter of a million worth of banknotes [illegible] with the accumulated lump of years.

THE INGENUITY OF A RASCAL.—An ingenious mode of making spurious coin has just been discovered [illegible] The former takes a gold [illegible] means of delicate machinery contrives first to take off the milled edge next to [illegible] of the coin so as to separate the [illegible] parts separated with [illegible] interval with a die [illegible] together [illegible] a preparation of gold and silver. By this means [illegible] the parts together.

A HARD HIT.—A Trenton correspondent of the Newark [illegible] writes the following in connection with the return of the 8th New Jersey regiment:

TESTIMONIAL BY PASSENGERS OF THE 'SIERRA NEVADA.'—The passengers of the steamship Sierra Nevada, took appropriate action on board of the ship yesterday, to express their deep sense of gratitude for their preservation through the violence of storms at sea on the passage from Victoria. We give place to the following proceedings:

ON BOARD THE STEAMSHIP SIERRA NEVADA,
PORTLAND, OREGON, Nov. 30th, 1864.

A meeting of the passengers was called to order by P. P. Wood, Esq., and on motion John Mason Esq., was elected Chairman, and Geo. Venable Smith, Esq., Secretary.

Mr. Mason stated that the object of the meeting was: To express our heartfelt thanks to Captain Connor, his officers and crew, for their skillful and diligent management of the steamship Sierra Nevada, during the six day's storm, from which, owing to their skill and exertions principally, she so miraculously escaped.

On motion the Chair appointed Messrs. Geo. Venable Smith, P. P. Wood, L. Reilly and J. M. Fox a committee to draft resolution of thanks, and report at 3 o'clock P. M.

On motion of Mr. Knight the additional power was granted the committee, of preparing and presenting a suitable memorial to Captain Connor, on behalf of the passengers.

Second Meeting—3 P. M.—Meeting was called to order by the Chairman. The committee made their report, and the following resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, The steamship Sierra Nevada left Victoria, V. I., Nov. 23d, 1864, bound for Portland, Oregon, and on her first night out it did please Almighty God to bring upon us a most terrible storm of winds, rain and hail, which has seldom fallen to the lot of any vessel on this coast to endure, continuing as it did for six days and nights without intermission, during which time the vessel was managed with such skill and care, that she gallantly rode the mountain-like and engulfing waves unharmed; and as the winds became more furious, and as those who managed her became more sternly defiant, the confidence of the passengers in the ability of the Captain and his officers and crew, and the seaworthiness of the vessel, increased,—therefore

Resolved, That we gratefully acknowledge the merciful care of God in permitting us to escape the dangers with which we were threatened.

Resolved, That we tender our sincere thanks to Captain Francis Connor, Chief Engineer John Fay, the Mate, Mr. F. C. Sholl, and the other officers and crew, for their strenuous exertions of skill, and watchfulness during said storm, and we hope that they may fully meet the reward of their high merits.

Resolved, That we have unbounded confidence in the capacity of Captain Francis Connor, and the seaworthiness of the steamship Sierra Nevada, and we cheerfully recommend them to the traveling public.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to Captain Connor, and that the proceedings be published in the DAILY OREGONIAN, the San Francisco Evening Bulletin and the Alta California.

At eight o'clock last evening it was our province to be present at the dining room of Arrigoni's, to witness the presentation of a handsome silver set, appropriately inscribed, as a further testimonial from the passengers to Capt. Connor. A sumptuous feast was spread, and the usual preliminaries of presentation and acceptance were had, when the passengers, with the recipient of their favor, and invited guests, seated at the table and passed a much more agreeable time together, than was in anticipation a few days previous, when those on board were momentarily expecting their doom. The presentation was made by Mr. Mason, chairman of the committee, on behalf of the passengers, by the reading of the communication below, which was responded to by Colonel McCraken, for Capt. Connor, who acknowledged his preference for superiority in managing a ship, to making a speech. "Capt. Connor," "The Officers," "The SIERRA NEVADA," "The California and Oregon Line," and the many sentiments of gratitude expressed, together with the responses at the table, were all worthy of comment, and which we can only regret our lack of space, and want of time, prevents a more full account of. The following accompanied the handsome memorial of the passengers:

NOVEMBER 30th, 1864.

TO FRANCIS CONNOR, Commander Steamship Sierra Nevada: We the undersigned passengers of the above ship, coming from Victoria to Portland, cannot separate without expressing our deep sense of gratitude for the untiring energy, firmness, attention, and seamanship, shown by you during the heavy gales with which the All-wise Providence visited us for a period of six days and nights, and also to express through you to the officers and ship's company under your command, our admiration of the prompt manner in which your orders were executed in the hour of such imminent danger; and we beg your acceptance of this silver set, as a token of our sincere respect and heartfelt gratitude, wishing that your future career may be attended with every felicity, and that the Almighty God may spare you to a long life of usefulness.

John Mason, Geo. Venable Smith, P. P. Wood, S. Reilly, J. M. Fox—Committee.

Alfred Pothin, J. Ducie Cashoon, W. H. Evans, Capt. Holmes, R. A., Geo. Edwards, J. L. Tilman, D. Elliott, Geo. Marsden, E. Miller, E. E. Pratt, P. Kearney, J. H. Hettman, E. Bell, J. J. White, H. B. Turpin, S. Cohn, A H Bean, L Willis, L H Ruby, R S Knight, J G Russell, H Adler, Nathan Maxey, Henry Dexter, E Rice, E Edwards, Bryant Killibee, B V Ecker, Wm Abernethy, S Shay, A Lewis, Paul Brittamer, Mrs Sarah Pardun, Mrs C H Larrabee, L M Johnson, Wm Durain, M Hanson, S W Case, Z Cushman.

LOOK TO YOUR BOILERS.—The proceedings in the inquest held by Coroner Knorp, at Suisun, Cal., in the cases arising from the explosion of the Sophie McLane; reveals the fact that all boiler iron in San Francisco is not as good as it might be. The engineer of the ill-fated steamer, in his testimony said: "I did not consider the boilers in 'tip-top' order. They were new; they have not been run over two months and a half in all. There has been a large quantity of bad iron shipped to this State, and it is very difficult to get a good boiler out of it. The California Steam Navigation Company spared no pains to get the very best boilers. The company believed these boilers to be in excellent order. When I first saw the boilers I thought they were as good as they could be got; but after I had tried them I changed my mind, and concluded that the iron was not as good as I had supposed it was at first." And the final declaration of the jury was as follows: "And we further find and believe from the evidence adduced that the iron, of which the boilers of the steamer Sophie McLane were made, was of an inferior quality and not suitable for the purpose for which they were used." As a great number of boilers have been imported into our State from California of late, we recommend the owners of them, to use the greatest discretion in their use, and have each one fully tested, to prevent disaster.

BLOCKADE RUNNERS FOR THE OREGON TRADE.—Since the commencement of the rebellion government has come in possession of a large number of vessels of light draft, fitted out expressly for running the blockade of any port, which are sold from time to time, as they accumulate and are condemned. They are in some instances fine vessels, and in nearly every case as good as new, and when thus converted by the government seldom bring their full value, but as they are useless for the purposes they were intended for—the builders of them having paid their money and taken their chances and government having no need of such vessels, they are sacrificed to loyal citizens for the purposes of carrying on the fight, with what means the sale of them places in the treasury. The attention of our capitalists has been directed to the matter, and a movement is on foot calculated for the purchase of three of the best captured steamers from government, adapted to our trade, to be owned and controlled by Portland individuals. The plan is a good one, and may result greatly to our advantage.

FROM ASTORIA.—The steamer John H. Couch, Capt. Charles Holman, arrived from Astoria yesterday afternoon. The weather in that quarter appeared to be moderating. The steamer George S. Wright was still detained at Astoria and a part of the most perishable freight was being disposed of. The bark Helen W. Almy, Capt. Freeman, was seen off the bar. The bark [illegible], Capt. Wiggin, it is supposed drifted far to the north during the prevalence of the late gales.

CIRCUIT COURT.—James McMillen was sentenced yesterday for a term of two years at hard labor in the penitentiary—convicted of larceny. In the cause of Peter Erbelding vs. J. O. Vanburgen, suit for damage to premises under lease, etc., verdict for plaintiff, and judgment in the sum of $[illegible]. The motions in the case of Hedson were argued and submitted to Court.

FELL OVERBOARD.—Mr. Rohe fell into the Willamette on Tuesday evening, from the gang plank of the Sierra Nevada, with one of his children, but both were fortunately rescued without receiving serious injuries.

THE THEATRE.—Last evening, on the occasion of Mrs. Hayne's benefit, Shakspeare's fine comedy of "As You Like It" was performed at the Willamette Theatre. The parts were generally well played. Touchstone and Audrey added a great deal to the force of the comedy, and Waldron as Orlando was very successful; but the charm of the whole was Mrs. Hayne's fine conception and acting of the part of Rosalind. Well as we may read and appreciate the play, and admire the "Sweet Swan of Avon" as displayed in it, it is impossible to [illegible] the wit and force of [illegible] as is the true delineation, and this is a living thing by force of [illegible] as displayed by Mrs. Hayne last evening. All were delighted and carried away with them a vivid sense of pleasure and enjoyment.

THE [illegible] CASE.—The case of the State vs. several Chinese arrested for assault and brought before Justice Gray, was settled yesterday by a withdrawal of the complaints against them, and the payment of costs by a generous soul from the flowery land, who never hesitates to relieve and quiet his brethren's disturbances.

AUCTION SALES.—The regular sale of Mr. Richardson yesterday was well attended and very many profitable bargains formed. To-day at 10 o'clock A. M., he will offer a very desirable assortment of furniture, on the premises at the residence of J. M. Strowbridge, 125 Second street, between Taylor and Yamhill streets.

WILCOX & GIBBS' SEWING MACHINES.—We notice the appointment of Messrs. Stewart & Gourley, Jewelers on Front street in this city, as the Agents for Oregon of the Wilcox & Gibbs Sewing Machine. We have not examined the machine, but the highest we can say in commendation of it is: that the firm above mentioned would have nothing to do with it, unless it was good. See advertisement.

GRAND SOIREE.—A grand Soiree is in anticipation for the night of the 7th inst., at Parrish's new hall, corner of Front and Washington streets, to be given under the management of Mr. Mackay, by the pupils and friends of his dancing academy.

INSANE.—Wm. Briggs, late of California, was received at the Insane Asylum at East Portland, yesterday, from Josephine county, an insane man. He was brought by Mr. Isaac Cox.

A MAN by the name of Nichols, lately from Oregon, died suddenly at a workshop in San Francisco. The telegraph gives his former residence as Perry county, Illinois.

THE SILVER SET presented to Captain Connor, by the passengers of the Sierra Nevada last night, can be seen by our citizens to-day at Goldsmith Bros. Assay Office, on Front street.

EUREKA THEATRE was again filled last evening, as it will be nightly, while Bussey's Troupe of Minstrels are the lessees.

CHRISTIAN COMMISSION.—The Committee are requested to meet at the Vestry of the Congregational Church on Thursday, Dec. 1st, at 4½ o'clock P. M.
A telegram from Rev. Mr. Mines says that he will spend the Sabbath in Salem. J. H. ATKINSON, Chairman.

Le Doyen's Sarsaparilla, Yellow Dock AND IODINE ALTERATIVE is the only remedy for invigorating a debilitated and broken down constitution.—Persons of scrofulous habit, suffering from impure blood, nervous trembling, impaired digestion, liver disease, lost vitality, should give this great blood purifier a trial. All rheumatic diseases, constitutional complaints and organic affections are radically cured by a steady use of this medicine. oct10d3m

Allen's Lung Balsam is composed of Roots and Herbs, which has a specific action in removing the matter of phlegm from the lungs and throat, thus relieving the cough, allaying the inflammation, and healing the irritated parts, which, if neglected, would soon end in Consumption. For sale by
SMITH & DAVIS, AGENTS,
Portland, Oregon.
Also, by the Dealers in Family Medicines, generally.

"A Slight Cold," Coughs.—Few are aware of the importance of checking a Cough or "SLIGHT COLD" in its first stage, that which in the beginning would yield to a mild remedy, if neglected, soon attacks the lungs.—"Brown's Bronchial Troches" give sure and almost immediate relief. Military officers and Soldiers should have them, as they can be carried in the pocket and taken as occasion requires.
REDINGTON & CO., San Francisco, Agents for the Pacific Coast.

A Word to the Aged.—In the decline of life the loss of vital force consequent upon physical decay, can only be supplied by some vivifying preparation which recruits the strength and spirits, without entailing the exhaustion which is always the final effect of ordinary stimulants. We tender to the aged

CELEBRATED
STOMACH BITTERS.
THE OPERATION OF THIS PALATABLE REMEDY upon the stomach, liver and excretory organs is singularly soothing and conservative. It regulates, recruits and purifies them. Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its control and invigorating properties.

Invigorate the System.
Vigorous digestion and infallible' pure nutritious blood, and in return a healthy frame. Does the victim of a dyspeptic stomach and a disordered liver desire to know how the digestion may be improved, the bile and other fluids of the body purified?

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters
Will accomplish this desirable revolution in the system, regulating the secretions and excretions, giving tone to the animal juices which dissolve the food, strengthen every relaxed nerve, muscle and fibre, and brings the whole machinery of vitality into vigorous and healthful play.

Strengthen the System.
The best means of imparting vigor to the broken-down frame and shattered constitution, which has yet been invented or discovered, is presented to the feeble, of both sexes and all ages in

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.
Debility, from whatever cause arising, may be cured; strength, in whatever manner it may have been wasted, may be restored by the use of this powerful and healthy invigorant. For indigestion and all its painful effects, bodily and mental, they are a positive specific.

A Word to the Aged!
In the decline of life, the loss of vital force consequent upon physical decay can only be safely supplied by some vivifying preparation which recruits the strength and spirits, without entailing the exhaustion which is always the final effect of ordinary stimulants. We tender to the aged

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters
As an invigorant and restorative, immediate in its beneficial action and permanent in its effects. It tones the stomach, improves the appetite, and acts like a charm upon the spirits.

For Females;
Thousands of ladies resort to it as a remedy for hysteria, fluttering of the heart, nervous headache, vertigo, general debility, and all peculiar disturbances and derangements to which, as a sex, they are subject. It cheers and enlivens the depressed mental powers, as well as strengthens the body, and its use is never followed by any reaction.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS. Purchase only of reliable dealers. Sold everywhere.

Oysters! Oysters!
Louis McMurray & Co., Baltimore.
THE ATTENTION OF THE TRADE IS PARTICULARLY requested to the above favorite brand of Oysters. Messrs. McMurray & Co. claim to be the only firm that still adheres to the old plan of opening the Oysters in a raw state by hand, thus preserving intact the natural delicacy and flavor. The superiority of this method over the one in general use, of steaming the Oysters in bulk in order to open them, whereby the natural liquor is lost and a manufactured one has to be substituted, is apparent, and recommends itself to all who have given this brand a trial.
The undersigned are receiving fresh invoices by each arrival of clippers from New York, which they offer to the trade on favorable terms.

Discontent.

Some murmur when their sky is clear
And wholly bright to view,
If one small speck of dark appear
In their great heaven of blue;
And some with thankful love are fill'd
If but one streak of light,
One ray of God's good mercy, gild
The darkness of their night.

In palaces are hearts that ask,
In discontent and pride,
Why life is such a dreary task,
And all good things denied.
And hearts in poorest huts admire
How love has in their aid
(Love that not ever seems to tire)
Such rich provision made.
—Dean Trench.

A Fancy Dance at the Theatre.—A wailing of fiddles and a crashing of horns in the orchestra announced that something was coming; and something did come, for Madame Hewyontinelegski quickly made her appearance, and took up her position at the foot of the stage. She was attired in a white gauze waist and pair of slippers. Attached to the waist was an insignificant fringe—erroneously called a skirt. From her position she at once "made for" the foot lights in a sort of half pace, half canter—grinning all the time a grin of ineffable sweetness, and gently stroking the air with her hands.

All this while the orchestra was keeping up a continual "wiggle-liggle liggle liggle," to which the woman in waist and slippers kept admirable time. After reaching the foot-lights, she brought her left foot to a level with her left eye, and fronting the audience, remained in that "posish" long enough for a feu de joie of artistic applause to burst from the galleries, when she ran backward on tiptoe to the rear of the stage, at the same time grinning and beckoning to everybody in the audience to follow her. After breathing an instant, a series of terpsichorean gymnastics were indulged in around the stage, which led a provincial couple in the family circle to declare she had got the blind staggers.

Madame's performance seemed to us a grand trial of skill and strength between the right and the left limb.* First the left limb would support the body—whirling around upon five writhing and pain-racked toes, balancing its companions la perché equipoise style; and then the right limb would go through a similar exploit, so as not to be outdone. A set of back action cartwheels followed, during which the audience were puzzled to discover the whereabouts of Madame's head, which was apparently "nowhar." These cartwheels closed in the centre of the stage, where Madam gently unjointed the left limb and lay down on it, throwing her left arm over her head in a graceful curve, the right reposing quietly by her side.

At this the provincial couple gave a suppressed scream, the girl informing her companion that she knew all along the woman would kill herself. This position of Madame's, we presume, was intended to represent beauty in heavenly repose. After a few more exaggerated motions, terminating with a grand whirligig, she ran just behind the scene, peeped forth, grinned all over the house, threw a random kiss at the Family Circle, (which hit our provincial friend, causing his face to assume a beet-like hue,) and was gone.

* "Legs" has long since disappeared from polite parlance.—Cincinnati Times.

Lord Palmerston's Breakfast.—The London correspondent of the Belfast News-letter writes:

The intimate friends of the noble lord believe that much of his robustness of constitution is to be attributed to the two good meals which he consumes each day. When in health (which means free from gout) he eats a hearty breakfast at 9, and an abundant dinner at 7. When I encountered him seven years since at Tiverton, we chanced to sojourn at the same hotel—the Three Tuns—and I was not a little amused at hearing his valet ordering the noble lord's breakfast. Lady Palmerston, I should add, accompanied the Premier. The valet (who had, no doubt, a supreme contempt for the menage of a little Devonshire inn,) stalked into the hall, and, ringing the bell, addressed the bucolic waiter thus—"Is his lordship's table laid?"

"Yes, sir."

"Well, tell the cook my lord don't heat (eat) no meat this morning. Her ladyship takes new laid heggs. Hi, myself, would like a little broiled trout, with 'am an' heggs to foller."

This inspired direction concerning the matin meal indicated, no doubt, that the noble lord was at the time off his feed and rather seedy, which his thin appearance entirely corroborated. He is now, however, in capital case, and while I write is, no doubt, enjoying the races and the many good things which his constituents have considerately provided for him.

The Toadstool Hat.—A cotemporary thus pitches into one of the latest styles of hat:

Of all the monstrosities that fashion has lately forced upon the heads of submissive womankind, the most hideous is the toadstool hat. Nothing but the most slavish submission to the tyrannical laws of fashion could have induced pretty women to disfigure themselves by wearing such ungainly head pieces. But unlovely as they make the young and pretty appear, the effect of those who have passed the heyday of youth and beauty is startling. No skill or taste in dressing can overcome the dull shade of the hat. The middle aged look old and plain, and the old like—well, they don't look handsome. Seen in the rear, the effect of these hats on the form of lovely woman is ridiculous in the extreme. A woman of stately form, crowned with the "thing," looks like a tall toadstool, whilst a dumpy woman has her upper works entirely extinguished, and looks as if she had in her hurry clapped an inverted bread bowl on her head. The milliner who invented such a monstrosity must have dreamed it after a heavy supper of raw pork chops and toadstool sauce.

Oh!—In South America some years since, the small-pox threatened to carry off all the monkeys. They must be vaccinated. But how? A boy was found hand and foot and vaccinated in the presence of a sagacious old monkey, who immediately exercised his wits, stole the lancet and some "matter," (left purposely in his way) and then tied up and vaccinated all the monkeys in his district. The example spread, and now there is supposed to be no unvaccinated ape in South America.

A minister took for his text, "The flesh, the world, and the devil." He informed his astonished audience that he would dwell briefly in the flesh, pass rapidly over the world, and hasten as fast as he could to the devil.

They hung a contractor out in Indiana, recently. He had contracted so much, that it was thought advisable to stretch him a little.

"Have you ever broken a horse?" inquired a horse jockey. "No, not exactly, but I have broken three or four wagons."

Felt Slighted.—Captain Hoff, of the Soldiers' Rest at Alexandria, tells a good story respecting a colored man who applied to him a few days ago for employment. He being unable to find [illegible], the Captain asked him why he did not enlist. "Well, Captain," he replied, "I jes as lief go an fight as not if dey would treat us de same as dey do white folks." The Captain assured him that the Government was disposed to treat the colored troops with perfect fairness. "Den, what for dey don't draft us?" exclaimed [illegible]. "Dey [illegible] draft up in Alexandria. Dey oughter draft us same as white folk."

LETTERS REMAINING IN THE [illegible] at Portland, [illegible] 1864.

To obtain any of these letters, the applicant must call for "advertised letters," give the date of this list, and pay one cent for advertising.

If not called for within one month, they will be sent to the Dead Letter Office.

Free delivery of letters by carriers, at the residences of owners, may be secured by observing the following rules:

1. Direct letters plainly to the street and number, as well as the post office and State.

2. Head letters with the writer's post office and State, street and number, sign them plainly with full name, and request that answers be directed accordingly.

3. Letters to strangers or transient visitors in a town or city, whose special address may be unknown, should be marked, in the lower left-hand corner, with the word "Transient."

4. Place the postage stamp on the upper right-hand corner, and leave space between the stamp and direction for post-marking without interfering with the writing.

N. B.—A request for the return of a letter to the writer, if unclaimed within thirty days or less, written or printed with the writer's name, post office, and State, across the left-hand end of the envelope, on the face side, will be complied with at the usual prepaid rate of postage, payable when the letter is delivered to the writer.—Sec. 28, Law of 1863.

[illegible] the army hospital—the bloody battle-field—the mansion of the rich and humble abode of the poor—from the [illegible] and the secluded desk—from the mountain tops, distant valleys, and far-off islands of the ocean—from every nook and corner of the civilized world, is pouring in the evidence of the astonishing effects of DRAKE'S PLANTATION BITTERS. Thousands and ten thousands of letters like the following may be seen at our office:

[illegible], Wis., Sept. 16, 1863.

* * * I have been in the army hospitals for fourteen months—speechless and nearly dead. At Alton, Ill., they gave me a bottle of Plantation Bitters. * * * Three bottles restored my speech and cured me. * * *

C. A. [illegible]

[illegible], O., July 28, 1863.

* * * One young man, who had been sick and not out of the house for two years with scrofula and erysipelas, after paying the doctors over $150 with no benefit, has been cured by one bottle of your Bitters. * * *

EDWARD [illegible]

The following is from the manager of the Union Home School for the Children of Volunteers:

Havemeyer Mansion, Fifty-Seventh St.,
New York, August 2, 1863.

Dr. Drake: Your wonderful Plantation Bitters have been given to some of our little children suffering from weakness and weak lungs, with most happy effect. One little girl, in particular, with pains in her head, loss of appetite, and daily wasting consumption, on whom all medical skill had been exhausted, has been entirely restored. We commenced with but a teaspoonful of Bitters a day. Her appetite and strength rapidly increased, and she is now well.

Respectfully,
MRS. O. M. DEVOE.

* * * Owe much to you, for I verily believe the Plantation Bitters have saved my life.

REV. W. H. WAGGONER, Madrid, N. Y.

* * * Thou wilt send me two bottles more of thy Plantation Bitters. My wife has been greatly benefited by their use. Thy friend,

ASA CURRIN, Philadelphia, Pa.

* * * I have been a great sufferer from dyspepsia, and had to abandon preaching. * * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me.

REV. J. S. CATHORN, Rochester, N. Y.

* * * Send us twenty-four dozen more of your Plantation Bitters, the popularity of which is daily increasing with the guests of our house.

SYKES, CHADWICK & CO.
Proprietors Willard's Hotel, Washington, D. C.

* * * I have given the Plantation Bitters to hundreds of our disabled soldiers with the most astonishing effect.

G. W. ANDREWS,
Superintendent Soldiers' Home, Cincinnati, O.

* * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me of liver complaint, of which I was laid up prostrate and had to abandon my business.

H. B. KINGSLEY, Cleveland, O.

* * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me of a derangement of the kidneys and urinary organs that has distressed me for years. It acts like a charm.

C. C. MOORE, 254 Broadway, N. Y.

etc. etc. etc. etc. etc.

The Plantation Bitters make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya Bark, Wintergreen, Sassafras, Roots, Herbs, &c., all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix Rum.

S. T.—1860.—X.

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try them.

They are recommended by the highest medical authorities, and are warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure and harmless.

Notice.—Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters in bulk or by the gallon, is a swindler and impostor. It is put up only in our patent log cabin bottle. Beware of bottles refilled with imitation deleterious stuff, for which several persons are already in prison. See that every bottle has our private United States Stamp over the cork unmutilated, and signature on steel plate side label.

Sold by respectable dealers throughout the habitable globe.

"CONSTITUTION WATER,"

THE ONLY REMEDY FOR DISEASES OF THE

BLADDER, KIDNEYS,

Gravel, Dropsical Swellings,

GENITAL DEBILITY, ETC.

THE ASTONISHING SUCCESS WHICH HAS ATtended this invaluable medicine renders it the most valuable one ever discovered. No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions in the debilitated and shattered system. In fact, it stands unrivalled as a remedy for the permanent cure of the maladies above-mentioned. Also—

DIABETES, IMPOTENCY, LOSS OF MUSCULAR ENERGY,
PHYSICAL PROSTRATION,
INDIGESTION,
SEMINAL WEAKNESS,
GLEET, FLUOR ALBUS,

And in every disease any way connected with the disorder or decay of the Procreative Functions. Persons about to marry, if conscious of any weakness, should take the

CONSTITUTION WATER,

Whether broken down by excess, weak by nature or impaired by sickness, the unstrung and relaxed organization is at once restored, refreshed and built up. Well may this celebrated medicine be called the

MEDICAL WONDER.

The stooping, trembling victim of depression and debility becomes a new man; he stands erect, he moves with a firm step; his mind, which was previously sunk in gloom or an almost idiotic apathy, becomes bright and active, and he goes forth regenerated, conscious of new vigor. The medicine reaches the CONSTITUTION itself, and restores it to its normal condition.

IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER, INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS, AND CATARRH OF THE BLADDER, STRANGUARY AND BURNING, OR PAINFUL URINATING, CALCULUS, GRAVEL, BRICK DUST DEPOSIT, AND MUCOUS OR MILKY DISCHARGES AFTER URINATING.

For these diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms. TRY IT in these cases, and you will ever give praise to

CONSTITUTION WATER.

Males or Females,

Are you troubled with that distressing pain in the small of the back, and through your hips? CONSTITUTION WATER will relieve you like magic.

PERUVIAN SYRUP,

OR PROTECTED

Solution of Protoxide of Iron,

Has been used with signal success in Curing

DYSPEPSIA,

[illegible]

GENERAL DEBILITY,

and all diseases which require a

Tonic and Alterative Medicine.

THE PROOFS OF ITS EFFICACY ARE SO NUMEROUS, so well authenticated, and of such peculiar character, that sufferers cannot reasonably hesitate to receive the proffered aid.

The class of diseases for which the Syrup provides a remedy is precisely that which has so often baffled the highest order of medical skill. The facts are tangible, the witnesses accessible, and the safety and efficacy of the Syrup incontrovertible.

From well-known Citizens of Boston.

The undersigned, having experienced the beneficial effects of the "Peruvian Syrup," do not hesitate to recommend it to the attention of the public.

Rev. JOHN PIERPONT, THOMAS C. AMORY,
THOMAS A. DEXTER, PETER HARVEY,
S. H. KENDALL, M. D., JAMES C. DUNN,
SAMUEL MAY, Rev. THOS. WHITTEMORE.

Certificate of Dr. Hayes.

It is well known that the Medicinal effect of Protoxide of Iron is lost by even a very brief exposure to air, and that to maintain a solution of Protoxide of Iron, without further oxidation, has been deemed impossible.

In the Peruvian Syrup this desirable point is attained by combination in a way before unknown; and this solution may replace all the proto-carbonates, citrates and tartrates of the Materia Medica.

IODINE WATER.

IODINE WATER IS THE MOST IMPORTANT DIScovery of modern chemistry, and it is impossible to over-estimate its importance as a remedial agent. Iodine has been considered the most useful article in Materia Medica, and many of the most scientific and practical chemists and physicians have investigated its effects upon the human system. It acts directly upon the

HEART,
LIVER, KIDNEYS,
DIGESTIVE ORGANS and GLANDULAR SYSTEM,

and it has great control over

SCROFULOUS AFFECTIONS.

Notwithstanding the zeal and ability which have been devoted to its investigation, it remained almost useless, until Dr. Henry Anders, a physician and chemist of New York, after years of patient labor and experiment, discovered a chemical process which enabled him to dissolve without a solvent. This, considered impossible by the scientific world, is attested by certificates of analysis from Dr. J. R. Chilton of this city, and Prof. Booth, U. S. Mint, Philadelphia. The importance of this discovery was so highly appreciated by the Faculty that it was published in the Medical Journals, and its use recommended to practitioners. ("American Medical Monthly," July 6, 1856, page 76.)

PURE IODINE IN PURE WATER,

This valuable medicine is now available to the public for the cure of Scrofula in all its manifold forms, Consumption, Cancer, Heart, Liver and Kidney Diseases, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Nervous Affections, Dyspepsia, Bronchitis, etc.

AS A TONIC

Its operation is evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increased nutrition of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine. The patient recovers flesh, strength and color; [illegible] pale, relaxed and feeble, he becomes full, strong and florid.

ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM!

The Remedy for Curing

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS,

Asthma, Croup,

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect, that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS' TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction, even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION. IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness, (which is the case with most remedies,) or affect the head, as it contains no Opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it, if only taken in time.

Sold by all Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.

FOR THE

CONSTITUTION.

CLEANSE THE BLOOD.

WITH corrupt, disordered or vitiated Blood you must be sick all over. It may burst out in pimples or sores, or in some active disease, or it may merely keep you listless, depressed and good for nothing. But you cannot have good health while your blood is impure. Le Doyen's Sarsaparilla purges out these impurities and stimulates the organs of life into vigorous action, restoring the health and repelling disease. Hence it rapidly cures a variety of complaints which are caused by impurities of the blood, such as Scrofula or King's Evil, Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Cancer or Cancerous Tumors, Sore Eyes, Female Diseases, such as Retention, Irregularity, Suppression, Whites, Sterility, Syphilis or Venereal Diseases, Liver Complaints and Heart Diseases.

Blood and Liver.

This valuable Medicine is now available to the public for the cure of

SCROFULA, CONSUMPTION, RHEUMATISM, CANCER, HEART, LIVER AND KIDNEY DISEASES, NEURALGIA, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, BRONCHITIS, DYSPEPSIA, &c.

AS A TONIC,

its operations are evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increasing the appetite. In cases of Dropsy, Emaciation and Debility, an increased nutrition of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine. The patient recovers flesh, strength and color; who has been relaxed and feeble, he becomes full, strong and florid.

Are you sick, feeble and complaining? Are you out of order, with your system deranged and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the prelude to serious illness. Some fit of sickness is creeping upon you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Le Doyen's Sarsaparilla, and cleanse out the disordered system—purify the blood, and let the fluids move on unobstructed in health again.

AS A LITHONTRIPTIC,

it has no equal; being chemically combined with Iodine, it possesses in a high degree the power of [illegible] in the Bladder, and urators of the kidneys, [illegible] gravel formation and enlargement of the [illegible] irritation of the neck of the bladder, dropsy, etc.
